

MONDAY, APRIL 2, 2007

04

LOCAL VOCAL

Ashok Parnami and Saurabh Sharma at the inauguration of IEC

New centre for IEC

Insight Education Centre (IEC), one of the premier institutions of foreign education and placement consultancy expanded its business operations in the city. IEC has now been shifted to bigger premises at Vijay Path in Tilak Nagar area. IEC came into existence in the year 2003 and has scaled unprecedented heights in the field of education. Inaugurating the centre Ashok Parnami, the Mayor of the city, lauded the role played by the teachers in the nation building and appreciated the efforts put in training the students for various career options.

IEC has been training the students for various foreign examinations like IELTS and TOEFL. Kritika Sharma of IEC is the only British Council Certified trainer in the state till date. Saurabh Sharma, MD of the centre informed that IEC has just launched the undergraduate training programmes for BBA, Hotel management, law, IT and Fashion Designing. It is one of the rare institutes in the city having training courses for GMAT, GRE and foreign admission consultancy for US, Australia and Europe.

MDP at JIM

to meet national needs and global expectations.

Officials Honoured

Maa Kesar Devi Secondary School honoured IAS Arjun Meghwal and army officer Swati Shekhawat in a recent function held at school premises. Meghwal was honoured for his kind and helping nature towards needy while Swati Shekhawat was honoured for her immense courage and determination to serve the nation. Both the officials asked the students to lead a disciplinary life to achieve success in the life. Later chairman of the organisation K K Vashistha thanked both the officials.