

Workshop at Poddar Institutes

Poddar Institutes organised a two days workshop on "Self Management, Conscious Communication and Inner Skills for Work and Life" for its staff. Devendra Singh Dewal, a trainer, consultant and an expert in designing various courses at OSHO Multiversity, OSHO Meditation Resort organised the workshop. On regular basis it has been organising such events and workshops for the all round development of its staff and employees. Singh has successfully organised workshops on Self Management for business managers in India. The workshop was designed incorporating what is needed for a change from a stressful lifestyle to a relaxed, playful and creative choice of living and techniques showing how to do it. Various topics like Communication and how does it work, awareness in "What is the Goal of this Communication, Non Verbal Communication etc were taken up at the workshop.

3 DEC 2007

Award for Insight

Insight Education Centre and institute for Foreign Education and Consultancy, has been conferred with the highest award by the British Council, India (subsidiary of the British High Commission, for education.) Announcing the news while addressing the students at the British Council Seminar at Insight, Deep Adhikari Head Examinations, North India, complimented Insight's achievement, stating that out of the 500 institutions in the country only five have been placed in the highest categorisation (i.e. Tier IV) of the British Council Representatives. In Rajasathan, Insight is the only institute to achieve this feat. On behalf of Insight, Kritika Sharma- Director, Insight Education Centre accepted the award from Adhikari.

Award for Jaipuria team

The PGDM Students of Jaipuria Institute of Management, Jaipur won the presentations third Prize at GIBS National Level Case Presentation at New Delhi. The prize includes a cash prize of Rs 1500. The team comprised of PGDM students Meena, Akhilesh, Kirti and Shefali who made a powerful presentation of a case "Metro Cash and Carry". The case was related to the diversification and expansion strategies of "Metro AG group", Germany. The students were short listed through a initial screening process through solving another case and were given one hour to prepare the case "Metro cash and carry" followed by a presentation for fifteen minutes. The presentation was followed by question and answer session. The team got wide acclaim and positive response from all.